Grant Application

Complete the Application

- An electronic signature is acceptable.
- Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.
- Your answers are limited to the space provided. Please use an 11 point font, and do not alter the format of this application.

Required Documentation

1. IRS letter of determination 501(c)(3) [if applicable].

Application Submission

- Please email the completed application in Word format to Greg Darling (gdarling@daytonfoundation.org.)
- Please email the required documents in PDF format with the application to Greg Darling.
- You will receive an email confirmation when your application has been successfully submitted.
- If there are additional questions about your application, staff will contact you.
- An organization may only submit one grant request for a maximum of $10,000.
- Applications will only be considered from organizations serving people living with disabilities in the state of Ohio, with preference to southwest Ohio.
- If your organization was awarded a grant from The Disability Foundation in July 2020 for COVID Focused needs, your project is not complete, and your report has not been submitted, you may still apply for a grant in this cycle as long as it is not a continuation of the specific July 2020 awarded grant project.
- Application must be received no later than 5 p.m. Friday February 26, 2021.

Final Decision and Notification

- Once a decision has been made, you will be contacted.

Final Narrative and Financial Report

- Final report will be due January 31, 2021. We understand this date may change and are happy to grant and extension if you make an advanced request.
- Please submit a paragraph explaining how the funds were used and a brief financial report to Greg Darling (gdarling@daytonfoundation.org.)
